

Godly Outdoorsmen.

The Bible says in 1 Timothy 4:8 (KJV) "For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come." For bodily exercise profiteth little! Meaning, the outward acts of our own body profit little. What will it avail us to mortify the body, if we do not mortify sin? No knowledge in were outward things could be of much use. The gain of godliness lies much in the promise, and the promises to godly outdoorsmen relates partly to the life that now is, but especially to the life which is to come, though we lose for Christ, we shall not lose by him. If Christ be our Savior of all men, then much more will he be the Rewarder of those who seek and serve him. He'll provide well for those whom he has made into new believers! But godliness is profitable unto all things!!! Godliness is everything! Our flesh is nothing. Being an godly outdoorsman is profitable, but the worldly outdoorsman is death! And this is profitable "Having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come." Be an godly outdoorsmen!
