

What is the purpose of the Outdoors???

Genesis 2:15

And the Lord God took the man, and put him into the Garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

Romans 1:20

For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

“What is the purpose of the outdoors?” One might think unto himself. The outdoors can be used for hunting and fishing, of which is food. Also for enjoyment such as: hiking, camping, playing, and bird watching. But what is really the true purpose?

As Genesis 2:15 says it is for us to dress it and keep it. To dress it means to work it. Even though the Garden of Eden was a paradise, the garden had to be tilled and planted. Seeds must be sown and the cultivated plots kept in order. At the time when no sin was around it was completely easy to work with, but because of the curse it is now much harder. To keep it means to cherish and to hold tight, of which all outdoorsmen should do. So the Bible clearly says for man to cherish the outdoors, how cool is that? That is one purpose, but not the most important.

Romans 1:20 means, for the invisible things of God to the creation of God (the outdoors) are clearly able to see, understanding that all things are made by the Trinity, so man is without an excuse to not believe in God. All of God's creation can be seen in the outdoors, and we all know that the outdoors was made by something. For some believe God made it and some believe in evolution. But evolution says that nothing made it but two little atoms, but where did the atoms come from, of which make no sense. But I by looking at the outdoors and its glory, I for one know there is indeed a God and I have no excuse not to believe in God because the outdoors proves there is a God. If I told you your house appeared out of nowhere, what you would think of me. Weirdo! No, but a builder built of your house. Just like a creator created of the outdoors. The greatest purpose of the outdoors is to prove there is a God, and I for one know there is. So you, godly outdoorsman, must go sharing God's outdoors to show that there is a God, of which is Jesus! If there is one who does not believe in a God and the outdoor proves nothing to him, he just doesn't want to believe, not that he doesn't believe. If there is gun up to my head and I don't believe it is really there and the person shoots it, and I die. How does not believing help me? Just saying....
